

the Skaneateles Library

This month we are excited to announce a new library resource called Creativebug! It's an online video collection to spark your creativity. With classes on sewing, quilting, paper crafts, knitting, crochet, cake decorating, jewelry making, holiday decorations and more, there is plenty to keep you busy. Just log in to Creativebug with your library card number to make your free account. You can watch videos anytime, anywhere and since classes never expire, you can start and stop projects at your own pace. We hope you like it!

Learn more Friday, Sept. 20th at 11:00 AM in Library Hall during our Creativebug Demo. No registration necessary.

MANHATTAN SHORT FILM FESTIVAL

Thursday, September 26th at 2:00 PM & Friday, September 27th at 7:00 PM

(BOTH SCREENINGS WILL BE THE SAME)

The Manhattan Short Film Festival is the world's first and only global film festival. Local movie lovers, along with audiences in more than 300 cities spanning 6 continents, can simultaneously view and judge never-before-seen short films from all over the world.

All of the short films are Oscar-eligible, and finalists from past years have included Oscar nominees and winners in the short film category. The total screening runs about two hours, and each film has a 30-second introduction from the director. All participants can vote for Best Film and Best Actor. Films are unrated, but may have language, content and themes equivalent to an R rating. No registration.

FOR ADULTS

Skaneateles Library Board Meeting

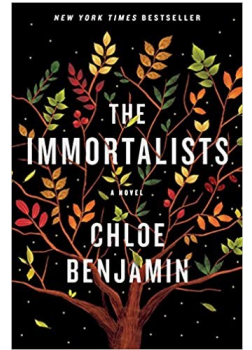

Tuesday, September 10th at 6:30 PM

The Library Board is made up of community members who volunteer their time and skills to further the mission of the library. All meetings are open and the public is welcome to attend.

Afternoon Book Club: The Immortalists by Chloe Benjamin

Thursday, September 12th at 1:30 PM

Pick up a book at the circulation desk. The Immortalists is a sweeping novel of remarkable ambition and depth, that probes the line between destiny and choice, reality and illusion, this world and the next. It is a deeply moving testament to the power of story, the nature of belief, and the unrelenting pull of familial bonds. No registration.

Guitar Concert: New York Guitar Quartet

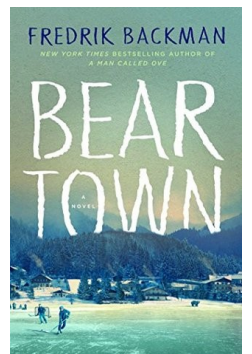

Saturday, September 21st at 7:30 PM

This ensemble features Matt Slotkin, Kenneth Meyer, Anthony LaLena, and Ben Ellis. As educators, scholars and performers, the NYQG strives to present the guitar in its many forms and to provide the audience with an exciting and diverse program. No registration.

Evening Book Club: Bear Town by Fredrik Backman

Monday, September 30th at 6:30 PM

Please note that the title this month has been changed due to issues with availability. Educated will be moved to our reading list for next year. This month's novel, from the bestselling author of A Man Called Ove, is about a small town with a big dream—and the price required to make it come true. No registration.

All library events are held in Library Hall unless otherwise noted. Library Hall is located on the second floor and is only accessible by stair; there is no elevator access.

FOR ADULTS

National Theatre Live Screening: The Audience

Sunday, September 15th at 2:00 PM

Tickets are $15 for general admission, $10 for students and seniors (55+). Purchase tickets online at SkanLibrary.org.

Academy Award-winner Helen Mirren plays Queen Elizabeth II in this Tony Award-winning production of The Audience. For 60 years Queen Elizabeth II has met with each of her 12 prime ministers in a private weekly meeting known as “the audience.” No one knows what they discuss, not even their spouses. Through these private audiences, we see glimpses of the woman behind the crown and witness the moments that shaped a monarch. National Theatre Live productions are recordings of plays from London’s West End theatres.
