

the Skaneateles Library

Happy New Year and welcome to 2020! Here at the library we're off to a great start because our GoLibrary Locker at the YMCA is now back up and running! Feel free to place holds for pickup at the YMCA and drop off your returns to the locker. Thanks again for your patience while our library system continues to recover from the July ransomware attack.

NEW PROGRAM SERIES STARTS THIS MONTH!

Sustainable Eating Series

We've got lots of food and farming related programs planned as part of this series which runs from January to March! These programs are brought to you through a collaboration between Sustainable Skaneateles and Skaneateles Library. No registration is necessary for any of these events.

Documentary Screening - Forks Over Knives

Wednesday, January 22nd at 6:30 PM

This documentary examines the profound claim that most, if not all, of the degenerative diseases that afflict us can be controlled or even reversed by rejecting our present menu of animal-based and processed foods. Rated PG, 1h 30min, 2011.

Eating for Ourselves and the Planet: The Very Best We Can Do

TED Talk Viewing & Discussion with Dr. Marybeth Carlberg

Wednesday, January 29th at 6:30 PM

Explore why plant based nutrition can not only be delicious, but is scientifically proven to be optimal for health, to reverse some chronic diseases, and to mitigate global warming. Learn some tips on how to get started. A TED Talk by Dr. Michael Greger will be followed up with an opportunity for discussion led by local physician Dr. Marybeth Carlberg.
